Synchronous instruction begins on Monday, Sept. 14.

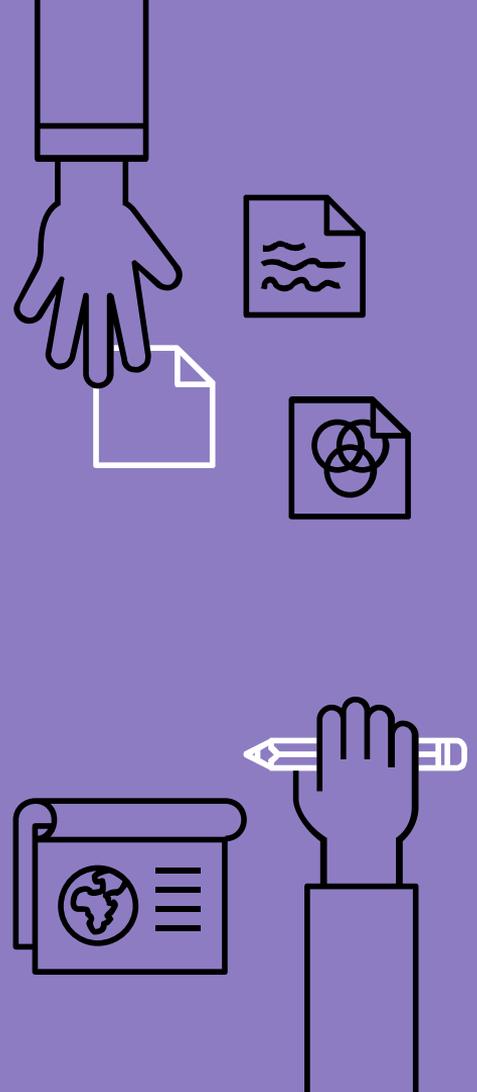

All classes meet on Monday, September 14.

- Students in Cohort A will come to RFH.
- Students in Cohort B and Fully Virtual students will participate virtually by signing into each class at the scheduled class time.

Will classes be synchronous, with video in the classroom?

- Mandatory live classes are expected and learning will be synchronous. Students will check in/meet live with each teacher at the start of each class and then will remain live or not depending on each lesson in each class, each day.

Are students expected to bring their personal chromebooks to school on days that they are present?

- Students are required to have a charged device with them each day. Students may bring their own device, or request to borrow a Chromebook from the school.
- If a student requests a Chromebook, that device will be assigned to the student for the year.
- There is a $50 Chromebook fee associated with borrowing the device.

What supports will there be for students?

- Students will have a study hall each day.
- Teachers will hold office hours.
- Additional student contact time is scheduled each day from 2:00 - 2:40.

What safety protocols are in place?

- All students and staff wear face coverings from door to door, which includes on the bus, in halls and in class.
- A health screening survey will need to be completed before entering each day.
- Students will enter through one of 4 doors by grade level.
  - Seniors - Auditorium
  - Juniors - Confluence
  - Sophomores - Breezeway
  - Frosh - Main Entrance

What should a student do if he or she is sick?

If a student does not feel well, or is self-quarantining, the student may participate virtually, even if he or she was scheduled for in-person instruction. Students who participate virtually or onsite will be considered present for attendance purposes. As in previous years, if a student is sick, they should report their absence to the attendance office at extension 257. Students are permitted to return to school when they are fever-free for 24 hours.

Is extra cleaning taking place?

- Additional soap dispensers and paper towel dispensers have been added in every restroom.
- Hand sanitizer is available in every classroom.
- Desks are being disinfected daily.
- Additional fresh air is provided through our HVAC system.
- Filters have been changed to higher rated filters.
