NJ QSAC: NJ Quality Single Accountability Continuum
Results Presentation, November 19, 2024

What is QSAC?

- NJQSAC is the Department of Education's monitoring and evaluation system for public school districts.
- It is a single comprehensive accountability system that consolidates and incorporates the monitoring requirements of applicable state laws and programs and complements federally required improvements.
- The system focuses on monitoring and evaluating school districts in five key components which, based on research, have been identified to be key factors in effective school districts.
- Once every three years, districts are required to undergo a full NJQSAC evaluation and must complete the District Performance Review (DPR).

The QSAC Process

- The NJQSAC evaluation process is initiated by the county office of education providing training and orientation for districts being monitored that school year.
- Each school district submits a self-evaluation using the DPR.
- The County Offices, led by the Executive County Superintendents (ECS), conduct a verification process by reviewing the documentation that the school districts provided in support of their scores for each indicator.
 - The verification process is conducted both remotely and on site.
- After the verification process the county office will issue a score for all DPR areas.
 - If the district score is below 80% in an area they must develop a district improvement plan.
